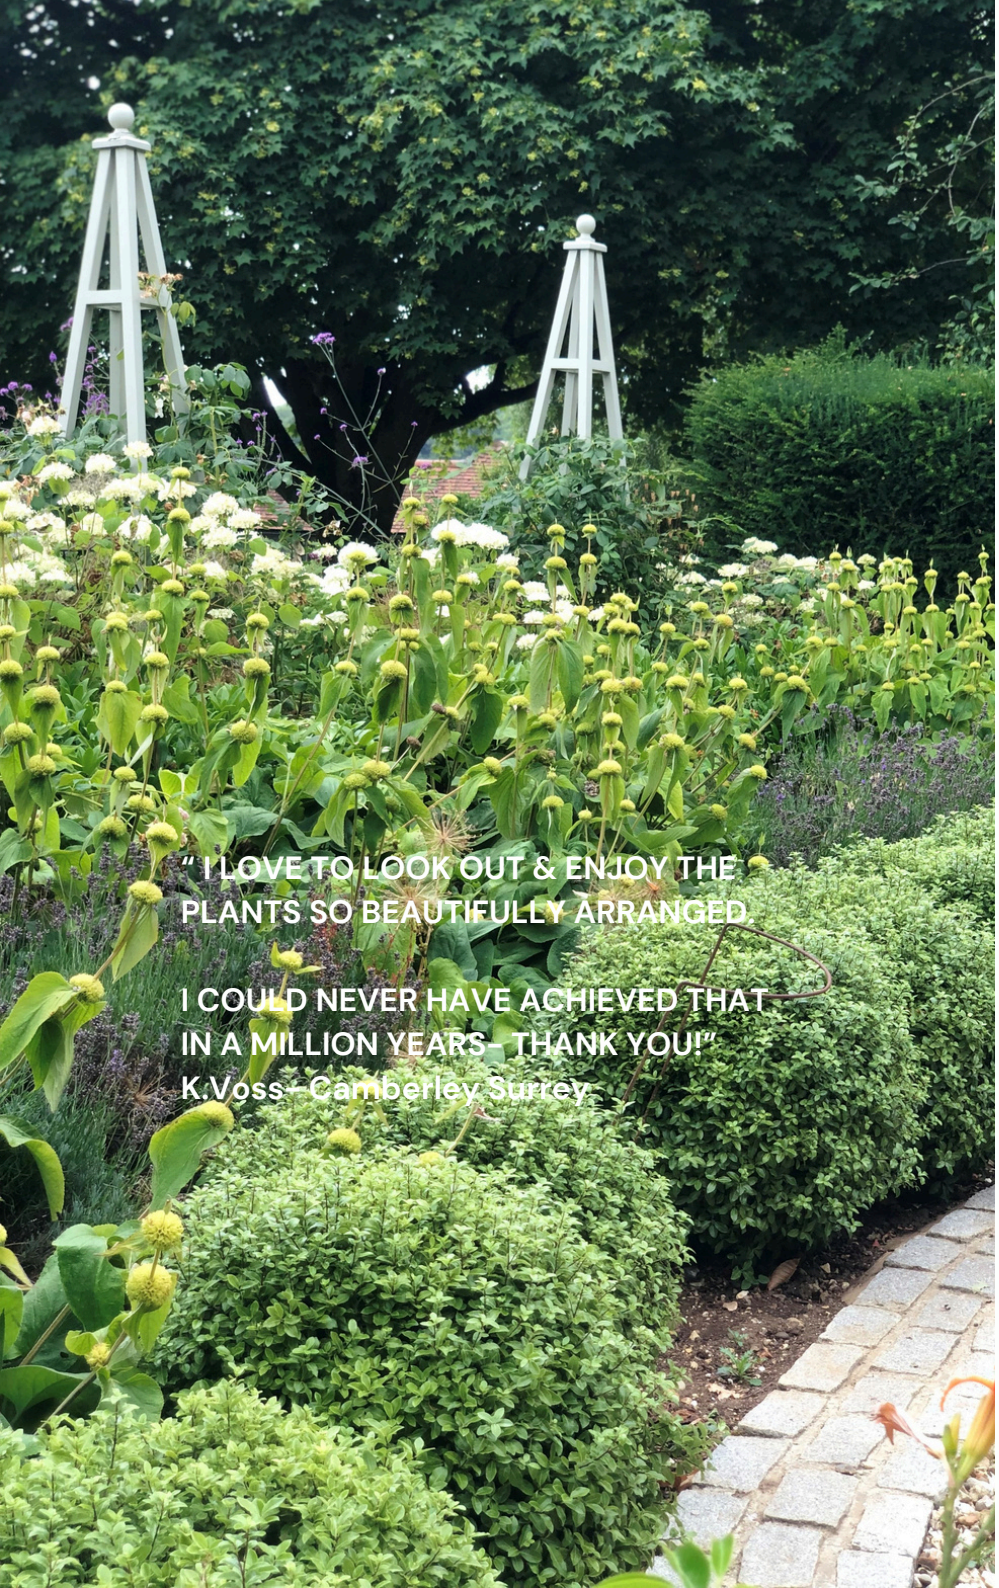
TRANSFORMING YOUR GARDEN



IS THIS YOU?

- Are you tired of going to the garden centre to buy the wrong plants that die or end up being disappointed by the outcome?
- Your current borders look messy and not in a style you like, are the wrong colour or the plants you buy don't compliment your home
- You aren't green fingered and are terrified as you haven't a clue about what you should be doing, how or when.
- You need low maintenance, hardy plants that will thrive and flourish - life is too busy to spend time researching the right plants for the right place.
- Maybe you have a specific tricky area like dry shade or problem visitors like deer and rabbits .
